

Dr. Daniel Engeler is a lecturer in urology at the joint medical school of the University of Zurich and St. Gallen and works in the Department of Urology at the Cantonal Hospital St. Gallen, Switzerland. He has many years of clinical and translational scientific experience and has published numerous papers. For many years he has been leading a multidisciplinary pelvic floor centre and has a wide experience in the treatment of pelvic floor disorders including patients with chronic pelvic pain. He is Chair of the EAU Chronic Pelvic Pain Panel and currently Vice President of the Swiss Society of Urology (Swiss Urology).